1.3 The Host City: Plovdiv – where history, culture, and wine become one

Welcome to Plovdiv, the oldest European continuously inhabited city and the official Best Wine Capital of Europe 2025, where over 8,000 years of history blend seamlessly with world-class wine, vibrant culture, and unforgettable charm.

In 2019, Plovdiv became the first Bulgarian city to hold the title of European Capital of Culture, a distinction that sparked a cultural renaissance and showcased the city's vibrant artistic spirit to the world.

Nestled in the heart of the Thracian Valley, under the shadows of seven iconic hills, and divided gracefully by the River Maritsa, Plovdiv is Bulgaria's second-largest city and one of Europe's most captivating destinations. With Roman theatre, ancient streets, and revival-era architecture, this city tells the story of civilizations — from Thracians to Romans, Byzantines to Bulgarians — all still alive in every stone, melody, and glass of wine.

Why Visit Plovdiv?

- The first of Bulgaria – European Capital of Culture: An arts and festival hotspot, home to events like Opera Open, Hills of Rock, Plovdiv Jazz Fest, One Dance, Francofolies and many others.
- The Old Town: An architectural and historical reserve and living museum of 18th–19th century Bulgarian architecture, Roman ruins, and cobblestone romance.
- Kapana Creative District: A lively urban oasis of innovation and charm, filled with artisan workshops, independent galleries, cozy cafes, and wine bars — where tradition meets contemporary spirit.
- Roman Legacy: Walk the marble steps of one of the world's best-preserved Ancient Roman Theatres or explore the hidden Roman Stadium beneath the city's modern life. Enjoy the rich historical landmarks, such as the Eastern Gate of Philippopolis and Nebet Tepe – timeless symbols of the city's ancient heritage, dating back to the 2nd century AD.

Europe's Wine Paradise

In 2025, Plovdiv triumphed over Bordeaux, La Rioja, and Tuscany to be crowned Best Wine Capital in Europe by European Best Destinations, winning the hearts of over 284,000 wine lovers from 82 countries. Here's why:

- 5,000 years of winemaking heritage, rooted in Thracian traditions.
- Home to Bulgaria's most renowned red grape – Mavrud, alongside local gems like Rubin, Pamid, and Cherven Misket.
- Over 17 boutique wineries in the Plovdiv region, with 9 offering wine tourism experiences including tastings, vineyard picnics, food pairings, and even vineyard weddings.
- City Wine Tourism: Six curated urban wine locations, with tastings available in Plovdiv's iconic Kapana and Central Districts.

- Host of world-class wine events like Vinaria Expo, Wine & Gourmet Festival (May), and Young Wine Parade (November).

Whether you sip a ruby-red Mavrud under the stars of the ancient theatre, walk the vineyards that once served Thracian kings, or toast among friends in a Kapana wine bar — Plovdiv will captivate your senses.

Plovdiv Awaits You

Come for the wine. Stay for the wonder. Explore a city where every street tells a story, every glass holds tradition, and every visit becomes a lifelong memory.

Plovdiv – Ancient, Eternal, and Irresistibly Yours.

9. BRIEF INFORMATION ABOUT BULGARIA

Picturesque nature, hot spring waters, fabulous seaside cities, golden sand beaches, historical treasures, remarkable monasteries, unforgettable mountain views and varied sport activities – Bulgaria is a place where you can immerse yourself and enjoy unique landmarks and places!

Situated between the East and the West, and having favorable climate and natural resources, the country has always been a site of continuous cultural exchange and diversity. Some of the most famous treasures in the world were discovered at the Varna Necropolis, including the world's oldest golden ornaments.

Bulgaria is a country with thousands of years of history and a cultural heritage that embraces ancient civilizations. Despite the fact that it occupies only 2% of the mainland continent of Europe, about 40,000 historical monuments have been registered in Bulgaria.

Wine production in Bulgaria has long tradition. The ancient Thracians, who populated the land in ancient times, worshipped the gods Zagreus and Dionysius and used the wine during their religious rituals.

In the late 19th and early 20th century a professional approach to viticulture and winemaking began to emerge and the foundations of the modern production methods were established for Bulgarian wines. Today, high-quality wines from Bulgaria can be sampled around the globe. Many of the local wine products win international awards and astound foreign oenophiles with their high quality and exquisite taste.

Few countries in Europe can rival Bulgaria's spa, balneological and wellness tourism, with its abundance and diversity of thermal mineral waters and curative mud deposits. There are more than 550 known sources with 1,600 hot springs. The hot spring with the highest temperature is Sapareva Banya (103°C). This is also the only geyser in Bulgaria and Continental Europe.

The country is known for excellent accommodation services and diverse programs that include massage, baths with mineral water, pearl baths, reflex therapy, medical exercises, balneological and medical cosmetics and many more.

Various tourism programmes combine these with visits of Bulgaria's cultural heritage, folkways, and traditional cuisine.

Come to Bulgaria and create your own story! Find new emotions, meet the locals and experience the Bulgarian culture and traditions!

10. URBAN WINE FEST PLOVDIV: A CELEBRATION OF LOCAL WINE CULTURE

October in Bulgaria is all about celebrating local wine and native grape varieties. For the past six years, 26 October has marked International Mavrud Day, honoring one of Bulgaria's most iconic grape sorts. This month offers opportunities to attend tastings at wine bars and shops, themed dinners across the country, online promotions, and masterclasses.

For the fourth year in a row, the Bulgarian Association of Wine Professionals (BAWP) leads the festivities with five Urban Wine Festivals in major cities. Among them is Urban Wine Fest Plovdiv, taking place 3–5 October 2025, just ahead of the 9th UN Tourism Global Conference on Wine Tourism.

Set in Plovdiv's city center, the festival will feature wine bars, food stalls, caravans, and a vibrant music lineup. Guests are invited to taste over 40 wines made from 15 local grape varieties, available by the glass, bottle, or to-go.

In the spotlight this year is a dedicated regional stand, co-hosted by Plovdiv Wine Routes and BAWP, which will highlight wines from local producers and offer visitors a deeper dive into Plovdiv's unique terroir and styles.

The festival focuses on wines made from native and Bulgarian-developed varieties, such as Mavrud, Shiroka Melnik Vine, Red Misket, and cross-bred varieties like Rubin, Gergana, Kaylashki Misket, Melnik 55, and Sandanski Misket.

The event is held under the patronage of the Minister of Tourism, with official support from the Ministry of Tourism, the Ministry of Agriculture, Plovdiv Municipality, and Mastercard. It is included in the Plovdiv 2025 Cultural Calendar and is financially supported by the municipality's Annual Tourism Development Program.

We are looking forward to welcoming you!
