Why ENATE?

Enate's connection with this territory has stood out since its beginnings. In fact, both the winery and its wines were named after a small town located in the Somontano region, Enate (Huesca).

2010

The first ENATE Solidary Wines are born, in collaboration with various associations. The first to be launched was created in partnership with Rotary Club Huesca, with the goal of helping eradicate polio worldwide. Shortly after, other initiatives followed: the “Vino de la Amistad” with ATADES, “Vino Amigo” with Valentia Social, and the “Rosado Solidario”.

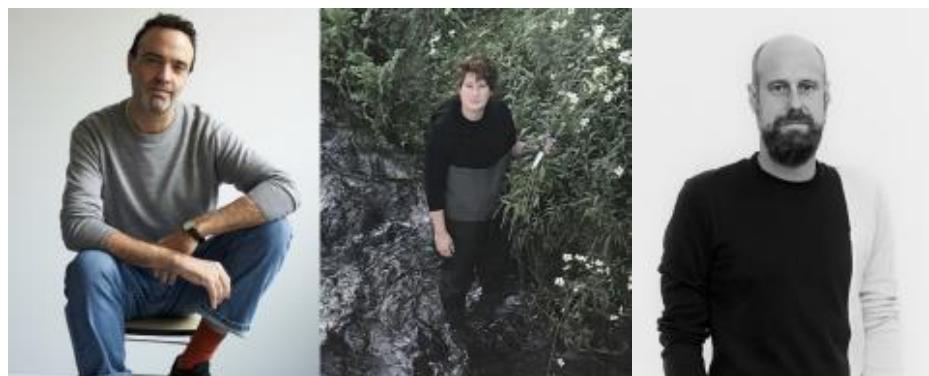

2021

ENATE “Rosado Solidario” is launched to raise funds for Believe in Art, Reforesta and World Central Kitchen.

ENATE'S first online tasting is held, organized to raise funds for the Spanish Food Bank.

ENATE Scholarship and I Residencies Award, reflecting the ongoing dialogue between art and wine that ENATE promotes.
